Business Credit

When running a business you will need business credit or other sources of capital to meet some of your business needs or goals. If you and your partners are always funding the business out of your own bank account then if one of the partners meets any type of hardship could cause harm to the business.

Initial Seed Capital (From Chapter 3 Your Point A)

What was your initial seed capital for each partner into the corporate bank account? ____________

What other installments have you made into the account? ______________________________________

Business Credit Repositories

What is your Business Name? ____

What is your EIN? ____

Did you create a Dun & Bradstreet Account? Yes / No Account #: ___________________

Did you create an Experian Business Account? Yes / No Account #: ___________________

Did you create an Equifax Business Account? Yes / No Account #: ___________________

Business Credit Accounts

Office supply company name & account #? ____

Cleaning supply company name & account #? _______________________________________

Computer company name & account #? ____

FedEx / UPS account #? ____

Crowdfunding Sources

Name of Crowdfunding Site: ____

Amount to Raise: ____

Dates Open and Close cart: ____

Type of Crowdfunding Offered: Investment / Loan / Reward / Donation

Project / Pitch: ____

What public is promised in return for money: ____