

Calendars and Online Conferencing

To have a business that involves interaction with people or having classroom-style events will most likely require you to either need to schedule events either online or in person. Regardless here are a few things you may need to cover.

Schedulers

Does your business requiring people to set appointments? Yes / No

Are your appointments only going to attract local, or can it also attract people who are national, or international? _____

Do you have different types of meetings? Yes / No

What is the size limit of any meeting you have? _____

Which Calendar Scheduler platform did you like best? _____

Video Conferencing

Which video conferencing platform are you going to use? _____

If you are going to use Zoom or another video conferencing platform how will it look to the attendee? _____

www.kevinadunlap.com/launch